1. 1. Mullers Gallery
104 Longmarket Street (Cnr Parliament Street) Closes: 19h00
On show: In Recovery sculpture exhibition

Mullers Gallery is open again for First Thursdays. Hard to miss with one of the most iconic Art Deco shopfronts on the continent, you'll find the gallery upstairs from Mullers Optometrists.

2. 2. 6 Spin Street Gallery
6 Spin Street (across from Church Square) Closes: 21h00
On show: Daniël Hugo Camissa Alterna - Curated by Andrew Lamprecht

Originally appearing in independent comics in South Africa, Hugo has produced a major graphic novel that explores the world of Oneironaut which features Die Strandloper, a female protagonist's adventure/journey stretching a hundred pages long. The paintings and prints on Camissa Alterna present moments in the alt-history of a Cape Town that could have been.

3. School of Explorative Architecture (SEA) Lecture at: 17h30
25 Commercial Street (off Plein Street)
On Show: Don't Touch My Hair - lecture by Mokena Makeka

Catch the second part of Mokena Makeka's lecture series Don't Touch My Hair at the School of Explorative Architecture's new campus on Commercial Street. The lecture is from 17:30-18:30.

4. 4. Artist Admin
79 Roeland Street Closes: 20h30
On Show: Werner Ungerer smalls.intimates.privates

Werner Ungerer's smalls.intimates.privates consists of mixed media collages combined with hand painted elements as a document of a tumultuous time in our lives (end of 2019 to 2022). They are small meditations on loneliness which explore the private systems we create, follow, and adhere to in order to ensure safe, predictable outcomes.

5. 5. District Six Homecoming Centre
15 Buitenkant Street Closes: 21h00
On Show: Salon Afrique: A Homecoming Reimagined (Opening)

A salon, in true African spirit, is a gathering place for culture, storytelling, and community togetherness. The Homecoming Centre presents a specially curated exhibition and immersive journey by Beathur Mgoza Baker and Sara Bint Moneer Khan that unites diverse cultures from across the African continent through visual art in our home - a site of hope, remembrance, and belonging.
